

Mr. Jecmen has more than 16 years of project experience in all aspects of design, construction documentation, and construction administration. His background includes healthcare, corporate, and educational projects. He also has valuable experience with forensic building investigations, historic preservation and code compliance. His skill in the project planning, programming, and construction phases of our work is instrumental to a project's success as it moves through construction to completion.